

The Do the Right Thing of Charlotte County Award ceremony was held on Thursday, March 3, 2022 at the Military Heritage Museum in Punta Gorda, Florida.

The following students were honored:

Coral Cook, Myakka River Elementary, Grade 2

Coral was honored for her leadership skills. Everyday she is a wonderful role model through her ability to follow directions, make smart choices, and uses her best effort in everything she does. She is always kind and honest with her words and her actions.

Jaxton Glazier, Sallie Jones Elementary, Grade 5

Jaxton was honored for his bravery. When he heard of a planned school shooting and was then threatened not to tell anyone, he courageously and bravely told his teacher and potentially saved a lot of lives.

Brooke Koehler, Murdock Middle School, Grade 7

Brooke was honored for her honesty. She found an I-Phone 13 valued at $1000.00 at her bus stop. She turned the phone in when she arrived at school, so it could be returned to its rightful owner. The owner was found and was very appreciative the phone was returned.

Katrina Machado, Port Charlotte High School, Grade 10

Katrina was honored for her generosity and kindness. As an employee of Publix, she won a $100 gift card. She decided to give the card to a former student and friend whose family had fallen into a financial crisis, so that the family could have a great Thanksgiving.

Clayton Petrock, Charlotte Harbor School, Grade 2

Clayton was honored for the tremendous improvements he had made academically, behaviorally, and socially. He originally struggled to stay focused on his work, but he now uses kind words and good manners, and is a role model for other students.
